

An Award Winning Documentary Film

SEARCHING FOR POSADA: ART AND REVOLUTIONS®

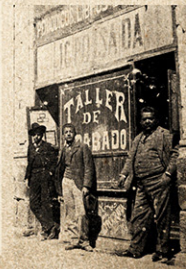

ART and Revolutions reveals for the first time the fascinating story of Mexico's famed artist-printer José Guadalupe Posada. From his work over 100 years ago springs an unbelievable sphere of influence and inspiration touching and connecting events like the Mexican Revolution, artists fighting Nazis and Fascism, Lucha Libre, the Cuban Revolution, the Grateful Dead, Day of the Dead and the art of today's social movements.

But Posada's narrative today is shrouded in myth. Intrigued by the story, an American collector of Posada's works embarks on a search for the truth about the artist. ART and Revolutions® is the untold story of Posada shot on location in Mexico from director Victor H. Mancilla (201 Squadron: The Forgotten Eagles, awarded 2009 Smithsonian Institution Best Historical Documentary).

ART and Revolutions®, revelando ahora por primera vez la increíble historia del famoso impresor y artista mexicano, José Guadalupe Posada y su editor Antonio Vanegas Arroyo. El trabajo de estos dos artistas ha perdurado por mas de 100 años y continua dando influencia e inspiración a un sinnúmero de artistas, creando un vinculo con grandes acontecimientos como la Revolución Mexicana, la lucha artística contra el fascismo, el mundo de la lucha libre, la Revolución Cubana, la música de Grateful Dead, la celebración del Día de los Muertos y en diversos movimientos sociales de hoy en día.

Director: Victor H. Mancilla Executive Producers: Jim Nikas & Maryanne Brady
Written by: Victor Mancilla and Jim Nikas Runtime: 40mins 28 secs
An EraVision Films and GeoVerde Production

For more information contact: jimnikas@gmail.com

www.artandrevolutions.com

www.posada-art-foundation.com

