

New Documentary Screening of:
Searching for Posada--ART and Revolutions

Art and Revolutions

is the untold story of Posada shot on location in Mexico.

For the first time the fascinating story of Mexico's famed artist-printer José Guadalupe Posada is revealed. From his work over 100 years ago springs an unbelievable sphere of influence and inspiration touching and connecting events like the Mexican Revolution, artists fighting the Nazis and Fascism, Lucha Libre, the Cuban Revolution, the Grateful Dead, Day of the Dead, Chicana/o art and the images of today's social movements.

Directed by Victor Mancilla
Executive Producers Jim Nikas & Maryanne Brady
Piano Music by Natasha Marin

Film trailer at:
www.posada-art-foundation.com

Film presentation and Q & A with
Director Victor Mancilla
Executive Producer Jim Nikas
Mini-Exhibition of Original Art by Posada

September 30th
12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.
East Los Angeles College
S2 – Recital Hall
1301 Avenida Cesar Chavez
Monterey Park 91754

Selected for screening at:

Contact: Evelyn Escatiola: email: escatie@elac.edu tel: 323-265-8757

Sponsored by Academic Affairs and Chicana/o Studies Department
East Los Angeles College